

UPRIVER TO MORNING

A JOURNEY TO WISDOM

A Comprehensive Educational Program

Inspired by the Teachings of Takelma Elder, Agnes Baker Pilgrim

Upriver to Morning: A Journey to Wisdom is a new book and education program developed by local author, educator, and musician, Tish McFadden. Inspired by the teachings of Takelma Elder, Agnes Baker Pilgrim, Upriver to Morning imparts important life lessons that deepen our connection to the earth and each other. Its content aligns with Common Core State Standards in 14 subject areas and supports K-12 Native American curriculum.

This bilingual journey up the Rogue River, in English and Spanish, infuses our children with the rich cultural history of the Takelma People through reading, music, theater, art, writing, and group discussion. Tish's inclusive content is endorsed and blessed by Grandma Aggie, herself.

uprivertomorning.com

Upriver to Morning needs you!

With your support, Upriver to Morning will be available to schools and communities, locally and throughout Oregon. Your tax-deductible donation to the Multicultural Association of Southern Oregon, designated for Upriver to Morning, will make it possible for thousands of students to learn the history and the wisdom of the indigenous Takelma people, as shared by Grandma Agnes Baker Pilgrim.

For more information:
uprivertomorning.com

Donations can be mailed to:
MCASO (earmarked Upriver to Morning)
PO Box 67
Medford OR 97501

*5% of all donations go directly to the Agnes Baker Pilgrim Fund to support Grandma Aggie's living expenses.

